

PRIVACY NOTIFICATION

Personally identifiable information is protected by federal laws (Privacy Act of 1974, as amended) and will be collected for the purpose of determining program eligibility, providing assistance/service, data collection, reporting and monitoring. Personally identifiable information will be shared with Wyoming Department of Health as is necessary to carry out the intent of assistance or service program for the benefit of the person applying for such assistance or services and may be disclosed to Wyoming Department of Health without written authorization.

Applicants/Clients may also be asked to sign a Release of Information; however, refusal to sign such authorization cannot be the basis for denying program services to otherwise eligible clients. Applicant/Client refusal to sign a Release of Information does not negate the inclusion of personally identifiable in secure reporting to Wyoming Department of Health. Wyoming Department of Health will de-identify client demographic data for the purposes of reporting.
